A Clean Up Remnant Sale

WE HAVE finished our annual invoice and find that our heavy fall selling together with our "Big Gigantic Sale" has left us thousands of short lengths in everything sold by the yard; thousands of broken lots of articles sold by the dozen or by the pair; dozens of kinds of ladies', men's and children's shoes, only a few of a kind left; dozens of hats, gloves and hosiery, where a few kinds only remain; hundreds of men's odd pants in broken sizes and patterns; and probably 250 men's and boy's suits, one to three or four in a lot, left from our big $20,000 stock of clothing carried before the Big Sale. Men's shirts and underwear; ladies' and children's warm underwear, skirts and jackets; heavy-weight dress goods, flannels, etc., left over from the Big Sale, will all be classed as remnants and sold at a remnant value, which will enable us to "clean up" all 1904 goods and start the new year's trade with a fresh, clean, unmatched and gigantic stock of everything—new, up-to-date goods, many of which have been arriving daily since the holidays. Help us make room by liberal buying of remnants, odds and ends, broken sizes, etc., this week at just HALF PRICE.
